

Celebrating 100 Years
of
Hindi Cinema

A Journey of Images, Emotions and Memories

Hindi Cinema is the largest centre for film production in the world.

Hindi cinema's greatest influence has been on India's national identity.

Hindi films have been a significant form of soft power for India, increasing its influence and changing overseas perceptions of India.

Hindi cinema has not only been a medium of entertainment but also the psyche of billions of minds.

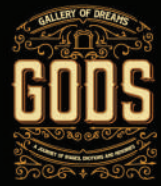

Behind the Scenes

Right from the day, the first Indian feature film was exhibited (in 1913) to date, the Indian film industry has made glorious progress in terms of technology, creativity and popularity world-wide. The illustrious past and the glorious present need to be carefully protected.

The Mahurat

At precisely with this very concern, Gods Studio has come forward to protect and preserve this invaluable treasure in a magnanimous manner. The Gods Studio has proposed to erect movable gallery project of 1,00000 sq. ft. with the noble objective of providing a haven to this undeniably great work of the maestros.

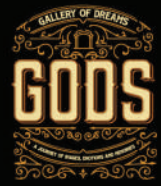

The Script

Gallery shall also portray the illustrious history worth over 100 years, the industry's veritable shower of priceless talent in the form of the stardust, the geniuses immaculate creation from behind the camera, the intense on-screen personas, the talented technical brain works that have burnt midnight oil in smoky rooms or the creative masters themselves.

The Box Office

To complement and balance the creativity aspect, several commercial opportunities, too, have cropped up for the connoisseurs of art. The supporters of Gallery of Dreams shall have a bagful to enjoy.

Brands supporting the project shall be allotted personal branding space to occupy. All in all, Gallery of Dreams, like the celluloid dream world it represents, shall offer a great break from the routine world.

The Appeal

Gallery of Dreams is all set to immortalize the geniuses of the yore. This immaculate presentation of creativity and architectural intelligence, no doubt, has the potential of positioning itself as a national and international attraction.

Present your brand to clients in a highly favourable environment where they will be in the most receptive state of mind. Get opportunities to showcase your strengths as you get valuable exposure to end clients and yield the rich rewards in the near future.

Production Houses

Production Houses can showcase their iconic work and contributions in Hindi Cinema throughout these years, in addition can also exhibit their up coming projects.

First Ever representation of Hindi Cinema in the form of Travelling Galleries.
